WILL THE PLUMS FALL THIS WEEK?

Candidates for the Surveyor and Collector ships Named.

POSTWASTER, MARSHAL AND DIST, ATT'Y

Some active Republicans of this city are said to be getting almost as restive as Senator Stewart, who was quoted yesterday, because of the long time taken by the Government authorities to remove Democratic officials. They argue with Old Hickory that "To the victors belong the spoils," and they think it full time the same were distributed. The feeling is thus outlined by a

"The talk is that the principal offices will be filled this week. The best plum in this district is the office of Surveyor of the Port. The applicants are Captain John F. Drave, who was removed to make way for Mr. Barr; William M. Vogleson, confec-tioner; Colonel John Ewing, late of Harris & Ewing, and Mr. George Sheppard, the present City Clerk. Captain Drave is well known throughout the district, and is at present a member of the Legislature. He is claimed to be Senator Quay's choice, Mr. Vogelson is strongly backed by the Grand Army and many business men. Colonel Ewing is a native of Washing-ton county, and, it is said, will get the support of Secretary of State James G. Blaine, Mr. Sheppard has not heretofore been announced, but he is said to have quite a promiscuous

"It is conceded that the Marshalship is held by Senator Quay. He has a personal friend, and that friend is supposed to be State Senator Rutan. This office is sought for by several

ONE CONCESSION AND A FIGHT. "The District Attorneyship is conceded to

Walter Lyon, Esq.
"The fight for the postoffice, as is well known, is between Captain J. S. McKean and Council-man H. P. Ford. It is said that previous to a visit to Washington by prominent politicians of this county it was taken for granted that Captain McKean's early appointment was as-sured; but the visitevidently deferred whatever arrangement or understanding was previously and. The report is that particular attention was called to the capability of the present in-cumbent, Mr. Larkin, and it was contended that, in the proper interest of civil service re-form, it was fitting to retain him until he has served out his full term. On the other hand, it is claimed that there is no tenure of office for a postmaster any more than in many other of-fices where a commission simply runs during good behavior, or during the pleasure of the Executive.

good behavior, or during the pleasure of the Executive.

"As to the Collectorship of Internal Revenue, it is said the friends of Sam Warmeastle, of the East End, think that he will be appointed this week. Mr. Warmeastle is at present freight agent of the P. & C. Ry., and a member of City Council. If it is a fact that he will be appointed, the question may arise as to whether Judge White's ruling relating to the combination of Councilmen and saloon keeper applies, Silas M. Balley, ex-State Treasurer, who resides in Fayette county is also a candidate. Whether he has other backing than that of the Congressman of his district and the people of his county remains to be seen.

A MAN OF EXPERIENCE.

Frank P. Case, for a time Collector of this district, is also a candidate, backed by this and several other counties of the district, and by namerous influential Republicans. There is no question as to his standing as a Republican; indeed he is a stalwart; but there is some dis-pute as to whether he is or is not a ringster. A Mr. Chamberlain claiming to be now a resident of Allegheny City, but hailing from Beaver county, where his family is still, is also an counced as a candidate, Mr. Kline, of Mercer, a the most recent candidate mentioned in this

"These several applicants, aside from their in efforts to secure the indorsement of our of Senators, are backed by the respective suggestion of their several districts. There is eight Congressional districts in this collected district, and each Congressional in whose strict they are a side of the congression.

"While the postoffice fight overshadows everything else at present, the next in importance is that for the Internal Revenue Collectorshin. After these things are settled the grand scuffle for the minor positions will begin, and that is liable to be equal in intensity to the scramble for the principal places."

UNDER THE I. S. C. LAW.

A Suit Against the Eric for Refusing Conl Cars to Cincinnati-One Victory for the Defendant is Scored. Messrs. Riddle, Dean & Co., yesterday brought suit in the United States Court, under the inter-State commerce act, against the N.-Y., L. E. & W. R. R. Co. The plaintiffs are agents for the sale of coal on mmission for mines near Pittsburg. In November, 1887, they claim, they received orders from Cincinnati for coal, and placed the order with mines on the P., C. & Y. R. R., a branch of the P. & L. E. R. R. The latter road connects with the N. Y., P. & O. R. R., operated by the defendant, at Youngstown. On September 26, 1887, a coal tariff was issued m the mines of the P., C. & Y. and P., McK. & Y. R. R.'s to points on the N. Y., P. & O. R. R., including Cincinnati, at $1 70 per ton. Act-ing under the tariff, the plaintiffs gave an order the railroad company for five cars per day to | For great and actual bargains in silks and fill their order.

At the same time the Lake Shore mines on the Pittsburg, McKeesport and Youghlogheny Railroad gave an order for from five to ten cars per day with which to supply an order from Cincinnati. A few days later the railroad company issued an order to stop all cars en route and to load no more with coal for Cin-cinnati. On January 3, 1888, they withdrew the rates to Cincinnati on coal and refused cars for there, having stopped shipments for that point there, having stopped shipments for that point in the meantime.

The orders of the Lake Shore mines, however, were filled, and their shipments cared for by the Lake Shore and Michigan Seuthern Ballway Company. The plaintiffs claim damages, by reason of the treatment received from 2. New York, lake Erie and Western Railway Company, to the extent of $10,290, the amount of loss on that contract.

The case, it is stated, was before the Interstate Commerce Commission, but was decided reainst the plaintiffs, who have now brought suit in the United States Court.

INDORSING BIG MEASURES.

The Chamber of Commerce Payors the Washington Exposition and Commercial Union—Also the Ohio Ship Canal. At the meeting of the Chamber of Com-merce held yesterday Captain W. P. Her-bert reported the distribution to seven sufferers of the proceeds received from the sale of the silver brick donated to the sufferers by the Wood street accident in ferers by the Wood street accident in January. William C. Lyne, Manager of the National Life Insurance Company, was elected a member of the Chamber.

On motion Mr. Anderson read a communication from the Secretary of the Exposition of the Three Americas, to be held in Washington in 1892. The letter asked that three additional members of the Chamber be appointed on the general committee, aside from the President and Secretary, Messra, Anderson, Miller and Batchelor were so appointed.

Mr. Anderson also said he had received a letter from the Hon. Erastus Wiman, of New York, in which the latter said that he would be in this city in the course of two or three weeks

York, in which the latter said that he would be in this city in the course of two or three weeks and would like an opportunity to meet the Chamber and speak to them and other business men in regard to a commercial union with Canada. The superintendent was instructed to write Mr. Wiman and agree on a date.

Mr. Jackson read a letter of inquiry sent the Chamber by the Commercial Club of Burlington, Iowa, which caused considerable merriment by reason of the great number of questions asked on what business men consider very private affairs. The writer wanted to know the price of coal to gas companies, and what prouit there was in it; what it cost to make the gas, and what consumers were charged; the number of electric light companies in the city, their charges and how their charters were worded. There were some 30 questions asked in the letter that would have necessitated one man working a month to answer, and with good humor, the letter was turned over to the Committee on Statistics.

The resignation of Captain William McClelland, of the board, was not accepted. He intends to be absent from the city for some time, and thought it best to resign. He was given leave of absence for the time.

Colonel F. P. Reberts offered quite a lengthy and strong resolution, supporting legislative bill No. 865, for the proposed ship canal from Lake Erie to Beaver, and it was adopted. It sets forth not only the great advantage to Western Pennsylvania shipping interests, but to those of the great Northwest, which such a project would assure, and therefore urges, first upon the Legislature, then upon Congress, its importance and value.

horse street sprinklers, with a capacity of 750 gallons each, at $380 each, and one single horse sprinkler, with two attachments, at $525. The contract for furnishing cement was awarded to the Pennsylvania Manufacturing Company.

There was to have been a hearing before Alderman Hartman last night in the case of five boys who were charged with breaking windows in the St. Ciair schools and stealing goods from the schoolrooms. P. M. Carr, the prosecutor, failed to appear, and the case was held over.

It is a matter of ordinary prudence to break up a cold at once by the timely use of Dr. Jayne's Expectorant, an old curative for sore lungs and throats, and a sure remedy for coughs.
